

A guitar that plays itself?

Our patented sound system turns any acoustic guitar into a very high fidelity loudspeaker.

Your music never looked so good.
Or sounded so good.

With the Entertainer Guitar™ you can play your own recorded musical backup-from duets to complete arrangements and add live music to enhance your performance all from one guitar! Simply attach any audio device such as an iPod or CD player and make your instrument come to life. The Entertainer Guitar™ is a perfect tool for guitar students, instructors, and live performers.

Even if you don't play guitar yourself, you can attach the Entertainer Guitar™ to any music player and listen as your instrument comes alive and seems to play itself-warming up any room with a rich, authentic acoustic sound.

- Natural sound produced by resonant surfaces of the guitar
